

Long time, alas!

James Hart

Soprano

Long time, a-las! our mourn-ful swains Had been with fears op-pressed,
Pan was not wor-shipped as be-fore But saw his learn-ed

4

-pressed, And pen-sive walked a-long the plair 'lock's dis-y rules, And jus-tice all turned out of '

8

-tress. Their fen-ces all were - lambs could fools. Phil-lis for Pan her. pit-y 12

keep, The rav-'nous - as of the sheep.
draw. They sac-ri- as well as law.

(16)

At , At which blest sight did run And 21

van- nic swain Like mists be- fore the sun. Then 25

his brave head with gar- lands crown, And give him of your wealth. Ah!

29

shep- herds as you prize your own Pray for your Streph- on's health.