help at all? Hide not thy face and do not let to hear me, Lord, when I do call.
 pen- sive-ness? Shall mine en- my, thus in- so- lent, still vex me, Lord, with wick- ed- ness?
 not for- get; O purge the dark- ness of mine eyes, that sleep of death op- press me not.
 vic- to- ry"; Let me not move from thee my stay, to cause him to re- joice there- by.
 heart mer- ry; And since thou, Lord, hast heard my moan, I will praise still thy name most high.
 Sav- i- our; The Ho- ly Ghost (one God most high in per- sons three) for ev- er- more.
